UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON HOSTS INTERCOLLEGIATE ART COMPETITION

DAYTON, Ohio, February 17, 1989--The University of Dayton's Kennedy Union Art Gallery is conducting an intercollegiate art competition Feb. 27-March 10. The competition is open to any full-time student in an accredited art program within a 150-mile radius of UD. Invitations were sent to 100 schools.

The competition, which is in its third year, has attracted between 20 and 30 applicants. The juried show gives students an opportunity to learn how to market their work and to share their own experiences with other art students in the area. "This is an opportunity for students to compare, contrast and critique the work being done at other schools," said Teresa Paumier-Cusma, associate director of University Activities.

The gallery committee will give prizes, including a "Best of Show" with a cash award and two honorable mentions.

A reception for the artists and their families will be held Sunday, March 10 in the Kennedy Union Art Gallery from 2 to 4 p.m. The reception is free and open to the public.
